AOC Honors Mothers in May Breaktime Celebration

Alas Oplas & Co., CPAs celebrated the May Breaktime on May 7, 2025, with the heartwarming theme “Breaktime for Mom.” Gathering over 190 employees from 15 offices nationwide, the event offered a meaningful opportunity to reflect on past achievements and embrace new beginnings—centered on honoring the role of mothers.

To set a meaningful tone for the day, a Holy Mass was celebrated by Reverend Father Ogie Orpiada. In his homily, he reflected on the responsibility that comes with the upcoming elections. He encouraged everyone to vote wisely, reminding them that just as God gives what is good and right, we should also choose leaders who will promote the welfare and order of the nation.

Following the Mass, Marvin Cadapan warmly welcomed all participants, extending heartfelt greetings on behalf of the firm. The monthly program featured the introduction of new hires, the celebration of May birthdays, and the recognition of employees marking significant milestones in their journey with AOC.

The highlight of the event was “Spin the Wheel: Nanay Ko ‘Yan!” where employees submitted photos of their mothers prior to the celebration and shared emotional stories during the program. These heartfelt tributes moved many, as they reflected the deep love, strength, and sacrifices of their mothers. While not all employees were able to celebrate Mother's Day in person—some being far from home—they made sure to connect virtually, finding time to express their appreciation. The segment served as a touching reminder that love and gratitude can be felt, no matter the distance, and that presence—whether physical or virtual—matters most.

In today's fast-paced world, “Breaktime for Mom” was a meaningful pause—reminding everyone of the deep bonds that connect families, colleagues, and communities.

Bright Future Ahead: AOC Legazpi Meets Chairman's Scholar

May 21, 2025 – The AOC Legazpi Partner in Charge Nathalie R. Lupango (NRL) had the opportunity to meet Jessica A. Llantino, a scholar of AOC Chairman Donnies Alas. This meeting marks a promising step towards Jessica's brighter future.

Jessica's story is one of resilience and determination. Jessica grew up without a father and was raised by their mother by selling turon and other kakanin. Despite these circumstances, she remained motivated in her dream of becoming both a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a Lawyer.

Although Jessica initially planned to be a working student, the demanding BSA program required her full attention. A consistent Dean's Lister and active in extracurriculars, she didn't qualify for a tuition discount as the required GWA was 1.3.

Understanding the financial constraints, Jessica took the initiative to seek out scholarship opportunities. Her efforts paid off when she was noticed by Mr. Alas himself. He recognized her intent and instructed NRL to connect with her. Jessica was surprised to learn that there is an AOC branch in Legazpi now and was impressed by the firm's profile.

Despite hardships, Jessica's grit, passion, and growth mindset shine through. Inspired by AOC Legazpi, she now dreams of joining the firm—an aspiration Partner-in-Charge NRL sees as a promising match for the team.

As always, Mr. Alas is ever supportive of the AOC Legazpi Branch. He remains committed to developing local talents that he can hone through various support – from OJT experience, upskill to expertise in cross-training opportunities.

With the support of her scholarship and the encouragement of organizations like AOC, Jessica is on track to achieve her dreams. Her story serves as an inspiration, not just for aspiring professionals in the field of accountancy and law, but for all who believe that circumstances do not define one's future.
